About the Ozark Arts Council

The Ozark Arts Council is a cultural treasure created with money, labor, materials, and support from the entire community. The OAC is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization with the mission to enrich lives by promoting the arts. Since its founding in 1996, the OAC has touched the lives of many in Harrison and Northwest Arkansas through exhibitions, performances, and education.

The OAC is the proud owner and operator of the historic Lyric Theater, which was built in 1929, and the operator of the Oak Leaf Gallery and GiftShop. The organization supports five member organizations: The Theatre Company, Harrison Art League, Northark Drama, The Twentieth Century Club, and Woman's Book Club. Educational Programs include the Ozark Children's Choir and Ozark Writers' Block.

Support for the Ozark Arts Council is provided by foundations, local businesses, and individuals. Memberships and donations allow the OAC and its Member Organizations to provide quality cultural programming and maintain the historic Lyric Theater for community events.

The OAC is a member of the Arkansas Coalition for Excellence and Arkansas Museums Association; and a graduate of the 2008-2009 class of Hands-On Experiential Learning Project (HELP), a professional development program of Mid-America Arts Alliance.

Thank you for supporting the arts in our community.

*All memberships valid through June 30, 2011 for the 2010-2011 Season. Complimentary tickets and Member discounts not valid for events where the theater has been rented by an outside group. Members may choose not to receive Membership benefits and donate the full amount to the OAC. If Membership benefits are accepted, the following portion is not tax deductible: Supporting - $20; Family - $50; Patron - $100; Principal - $140; Director - $200; Producer - $700. The balance of your Membership is a contribution which is tax deductible to the full extent of the law.
